RED SHED BICYCLE SUMMER CAMP 2017

This summer learn how to work on your bike and go on a great group ride, every weekday for a week! Or sign up for multiple weeks and learn more and ride more!

Red Shed Bike Camp is a bicycle-themed day camp for youth ages 8-13. Every day includes scenic group rides along the Woonasquatucket River, and lessons in bike mechanics, smart cycling, and environmental stewardship. Bikes, helmets and locks are provided to all campers who need them and are theirs to keep after completing a week of camp.

Weekly sessions start June 26th and run to mid-August. Camp runs Monday-Friday from 9am-3pm and is held in Riverside Park at the Red Shed Bike shop, 50 Aleppo Street Providence, RI 02909

The Bike Camp Party is Friday, August 18 from 12 to 2pm. All 2017 campers and their families are invited. The party includes a barbecue and a bike ride. You must RSVP with the Bike Camp Coordinator to attend.

Cost: $200 per week. Scholarships are available for youth in need.

Scholarships:

To apply for a scholarship please fill out the scholarship section at the end of the application. All scholarship applications must be made in person by a parent or legal guardian during Red Shed Bike Shop hours M - Sat 10AM to 2PM. Or you can make an appointment to apply by calling 469-708-9792. There is a $5 scholarship application fee.

Refund Policy:

If any week you sign up for is full, the $200 camp fee for that week will be refunded (or it can be applied to another week). If you withdraw at least one week before the start of any camp week you will receive a credit for your $200 camp fee that can be used for another week (if space is available) or used another year. If you withdraw less than one week before the start of a camp week your $200 camp fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a credit for the week.
